Wolf Poison!

There's one 100-proof way to guard your door against that fellow's visit.

There's wolf poison in every U. S. Savings Bond you buy. There's sweet security, too—for your home, your family and yourself.

U. S. Savings Bonds are 100% guaranteed by Uncle Sam. They pay you $4 for every $3 you put in, after 10 years.

Think of the profitable saving in terms of future comforts and luxuries. Think of the advantage it will mean for your children as they grow up.

Think. THINK. THINK.

Then start saving right away—today! Start saving automatically the sure, convenient way. If you work for wages or salary, enroll in the Payroll Savings Plan—the only installment savings plan.

If you're not eligible for that plan—if you're in business but not on a payroll—ask your bank about the equally practical Bond-A-Month Plan.

REMEMBER—U. S. Savings Bonds are guaranteed to pay!

Automatic saving is sure saving—U.S. Savings Bonds

A LITTLE LATER...

WELL, WE'VE GOT TO DO SOMETHING! MAYBE WE CAN SHOW THEM HOW RIDICULOUS THEY LOOK, BY DRESSING UP THE SAME WAY!

THE SAME WAY? ARE YOU CRAZY?

SCREAMERS

An old maid abused a train traveling East from California was telling the man in the next seat about her trip. The man just nodded his head until the old maid mentioned that she had stopped at San Jose. "You mispronounced the name of that city," he told her. "In California the letter J is pronounced as if it were an H. And, by the way, when were you there?" The old maid squinted one eye and snapped back: "In June and July!"

A hopeful Kansan submitted to a Boston firm a poem entitled, "Why Do I Live?" It was returned with the following note: "We regret we cannot use your poem, but we can answer your question. It is because you MAILED the poem to us instead of delivering it in person!"

Teacher: "Roger—can you tell me where the Red Sea is?"

Roger: "Yeah—sure! It's on the second line of my report card!"

Farmer: "Hey, boy! What are you doin' up in that apple tree?"

Boy: "Where else can I be—the sign says 'Keep off the grass!'"

A blonde bobby-cuter tripped past a street corner where two boys were standing and one of them tipped his hat to her. The other boy asked: "You don't know her, why did you tip your hat?"

"Well, you see," his companion replied. "My brother knows her, and I'm wearing his hat!"

A dog was seated across from a man at a checkerboard in a country store when a salesman came in. The salesman took one look and asked: "Are you really playing checkers with that dog?"

"Sure thing!" the man replied. "Watch!" The man moved a checker, and then the dog raised a paw and did likewise.

"Gosh!" the salesman exclaimed. "I can hardly believe my eyes. That's the smartest dog I ever did see!"

"What's so smart about him?" scoffed the checker player. "I've beaten him in three out of five games so far!"

Wise guy: "Aw, I don't believe that dog is a genuine bloodhound. Can you prove he is?"

Trainer: "Of course! Here, Rex! Show this man how you can bleed."

Wise guy: "Sleep! I'll take your word for it. I can't stand the sight of blood!"

Big game hunter: "And there I was surrounded on all sides by dense jungle trees, miles from the nearest foot path. I raised my rifle, took quick aim, squeezed the trigger and the shot rang out. Wiping sweat from my eyes I stared ahead to see a dead rhinoceros."

Chorus girl: "Gee! And how long had it been dead?"

Sandy: "Hey, Mom! I just saved another dime by running all the way home from school behind the bus!"

Mrs. McTavish: "Next time run home behind a taxi, and save fifty cents!"

"What pretty hair you have, Jenny!" the visitor exclaimed. "You must have gotten it from your mother."

"No," little Jenny replied. "I must have gotten it from my daddy 'cause his hair is all gone."

A hawk-faced old hiddy walked up to a kid who was smoking, shook a finger at his nose and said: "Young man, does your mother know that you smoke?"

"Lads," the kid retorted, "Does your husband know you stop to talk with strange men on the street?"

When it was time to have the new baby christened, the father, who worked in a digger, absolutely forbid the ceremony to be performed.

"I won't allow it!" he said indignantly. "It might fracture the poor kid's skull if they smacked him on the head with a bottle of champagne!"

Chief: "Yes, me get a little taste of it from missionary who came here Tare you!"

A tough customer sat down to a table in a swanky restaurant and tied a napkin around his neck before grabbing for the menu. The headwaiter called one of his men and told him: "See if you can make that man understand that our patrons don't tie their napkins around their necks. But be careful with him!"

The waiter went over, tapped the tough customer on the shoulder and said: "What'll it be, sir. Shave or a haircut?"

"I couldn't sleep a wink last night," said the new guest to the manager of a small town hotel. "I was troubled by insomnia."

"Oh, yeah?" sneered the angered manager. "I'll give you two bits for every one of 'em you can find in this bed—unless you brought 'em with you!"

Zeke Perkins watched his bride take off her wig, remove her false teeth and wash off her skin-thick layer of makeup. Then she said him: "I'm terribly tired. Haven't been able to get off my feet all day."

"Good heavens!" Zeke cried. "Do they come off, too?"

"I wouldn't want to call him that, but when it's time to fill the troughs with corn and skim milk, Uncle Wadi has to get somebody else to call the hogs."

After giving orders and instructions for nearly a half hour, the mistress asked the new maid if there were any questions she'd like to ask. The new maid replied: "Yes, m'am! Can I use the phone to call the express company to send my trunk back from where they came from?"

* * *

An immigration official, after explaining the history of the American flag to a group of aliens seeking their first citizenship papers, asked a little man with a big mustache: "Can you tell me what flies over the courthouse?"

The alien scratched his head, then smiled and said: "Sure I know! Perfidy!"

"MacArthur," the fellow replied.

"Haven't you got a first name?"

"Yeah—sure. It's Douglas."

"Douglas MacArthur, huh?" the foreman asked. "That name is pretty well-known, isn't it?"

"Sure is!" the young fellow snapped back. "I was captain of the football team in this town when we won the pennant last season."

BAD SKIN?

Stop Worrying About Pimples, Blackheads and Other Externally Caused Skin Troubles

Try Skin Doctor's Amazing Simple Directions and Be Thrilled with the Difference—
Often So Much

CLEARER IN JUST ONE SHORT WEEK

Have you ever stopped to realize that the leading screen stars whom you admire, as well as the beautiful models who have lovely, soft white skin, were all born just like you with a lovely smooth skin?

The truth is that many girls and women do not give their skin a chance to show off the natural beauty that lies hidden underneath these externally caused pimples, blackheads and irritations. For almost anyone can have the natural, smooth complexion which is in itself beauty. All you have to do is follow a few amazingly simple rules.

Many women shut themselves out of the thrills of life—dates, excursions, popularity, social and business success—only because their neglect has robbed them of the good looks, poise and feminine self-assurance which could so easily be theirs. Yes, everybody looks at your face. The beautiful complexion, which is yours for the asking, is like a permanent card of admission to all the good things of life that every woman craves. And it really can be yours—take my word for it!—no matter how discouraged you may be this very minute about those externally caused skin troubles.

Medical science gives us the truth about a lovely skin. There are small spots of dirt and dust on it all the time. When these get into the open pores on your skin, they act, in time, cause the pores to become larger and more susceptible to dirt particles, dust and infection. These open pores begin to form blackheads which become infestes and bring you the humiliation of pimples, blackheads or other blemishes. When you neglect your skin by not giving it the necessary care, you leave yourself wide open to externally caused skin miseries. Yet proper attention with the double Vaseline treatment may mean the difference between enjoying the confidence a fine skin gives you or the embarrassment of an ugly, unsatisfactory skin that makes you want to hide your face.

The double Vaseline treatment is a formula prescribed by a skin doctor with amazing success, and costs you only a few cents daily. This treatment consists of two parts. One contains Vaseline Skin Creamer, a jelly-like formula which penetrates and acts as an acceptor upon your pores. After you use this special Vaseline Skin Creamer, you simply apply the Vaseline Fortified Medicated Skin Cream. You rub this in, leaving an almost invisible protective covering for the surface of your skin.

This double treatment has worked wonders for so many cases of external skin troubles that it may help you, too—on that, your money will be refunded if it doesn't. Use it for only ten days. You have everything to gain and nothing to lose. It is a guaranteed treatment. Keep it. Your dream of a clear, smooth complexion may come true in ten days or less.

Use your double Vaseline treatment every day until your skin is smoother and clearer. Then use it only once a week to remove skin make-up and dirt specks that clog your pores, as well as to act as healing external irritations. Remember that when you help prevent blackheads, you also help to prevent externally caused skin miseries and pimples.

Incidentally, while your two jars and the doctor's directions get on their way to you, be sure to wash your face as often as necessary. First, use warm water, then cleanse with water as cold as you can stand it, in order to freshen, stimulate and help close your pores. After you receive everything, read your directions carefully. Then go right to it and let these two fine formulas help your dream of a beautiful skin come true.
